

SAINT LUDMILA IN SLAVIC AND CENTRAL EUROPEAN CULTURE

30. – 31. 10. 2021

Call for papers – Invitation (First call)

We are pleased to announce, that on the 30th and 31st of October 2021, an international scholarly conference will be held to commemorate the 1100th anniversary of the martyrdom of Saint Ludmila of Bohemia.

The conference will be held in the Emaus cloister in Prague, Czech republic and is organised by the University of Prešov, (Orthodox theological faculty) Slovakia, the International Slavic University of G. R. Derzhavin, North Macedonia, and with the co-operation of the Saint Petersburg Theological Academy, Russia, further the International NGO All Slavs Committee, and the Orthodox theological Institute in Prague.

The conference is taking place under the blessings of his Beatitude Rastislav, Metropolitan of the Orthodox Church in the Czech lands and Slovakia.

We would like to invite contributions to this conference, under the auspices of the general theme. Contributions should not exceed 20 minutes. The proceedings will be published in a conference publication. The conference will be held in person, unless serious pandemic conditions would prevent it, in which case it would take place online.

Those interested should send the name and abstract of their proposals (not exceeding 300 words), together with their names and institution, with contact details to the following organising persons: vaclavjezek111@gmail.com or jan.husar@unipo.sk. Final date for submissions/ 15 of september.
